

The Rehabilitation Network

CURRICULUM VITAE

Gill Allen, Queen's Nurse
Rehabilitation Nurse Case Manager

Geographical home area: Greater London West
Working area: Greater London including Middlesex, Surrey, Berkshire, Hertfordshire, Hampshire, Sussex, Oxfordshire, Essex.

Qualifications:

MPhil., RGN., RM., ONC., DipNurs(Lond), RCNT., NPDip.
MHFA Certified (June 2019)

Professional Memberships:

NMC PIN: 7310048E (Revalidated Nov 2021)

Career Summary:

Gill practices as a Rehabilitation Nurse Case Manager specialising in the management of care for people who have complex long-term needs resulting from either industrial, road traffic accidents or from clinical negligence.

Career History:

After completing training in General Nursing, Midwifery and Orthopaedic Nursing, Gill has held various posts including a Ward Sister, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Nurse Practitioner and Nurse Case Manager.

For the last 20 years Gill has worked independently in Case Management. Gill was awarded the title of Queen's Nurse in 2009, and A Long Service Award in recognition of 21 years of Service in Community Healthcare in 2018.

During 2013-2015 Gill was a part time tutor for the Open University delivering the PGDip NHS Leadership Academy Mary Seacole Programme. Gill maintains her CPD obligations, in 2018 she attended a Catastrophic Injury Case Manager Day with Dorset Orthopaedic Co Ltd and in 2019 became a Mental Health First Aider.

Administration:

Rivendell, 4 South Scarle Lane, North Scarle, Lincoln, LN6 9ER
Tel: 01522 778689 Fax: 0871 714 3638 Mobile: 07976 604541
e-mail: john@rehabilitation-network.org www.rehabilitation-network.org

Specialist Interest

Gill has an interest in all forms of physical and psychological Rehabilitation and has particular expertise in the fields of brain injury and traumatic limb amputation.

She has acquired expertise in osseointegration nursing and has undertaken specialist training at The Sahlgrenska University Hospital and Centre of Orthopaedic Osseointegration at Molndal Hospital, Gothenburg, Sweden in 2011. Since this time she has maintained an interest in pain management, 'Social Prescribing' and the links to successful rehabilitation.

Gill is also interested in Dementia Care and the care of the Diabetic person. She is presently involved in undertaking some research with Public Health England and Health Education England looking at Antimicrobial Resistance – she is an 'Antibiotic Guardian'.

Voluntary Work

Gill became a 'Dementia Friend' in 2014 and an 'Alzheimer Friend' 2019

Gill has worked as an Assistant Teacher to the blind and visually impaired 'Monday Moves' weekly ballet Class at The Royal Opera House.

Gill has assisted with running Dance Class sessions for people living with Dementia.