Profile:

Rosie Dickson is an Advanced Practitioner Brain Injury Case Manager, HPCP Registered Health Professional and Chartered Occupational Psychologist. She has a passion for finding solutions for clients following brain injury, putting together bespoke neuro rehab packages which fully address their individual rehabilitation needs. Rosie's initial work with a client involves helping them to identify realistic rehabilitation goals, recognising that these goals will evolve and change over time through frequent reviews.

Rosie has worked as a case manager for over sixteen years and has considerable experience working with clients with a wide range of disabilities and health problems such as head injury, psychological conditions (including PTSD, dementia, psychiatric conditions), complex fracture healing, amputation, and visual impairment. In 2018 she decided to validate her knowledge and skills of case managing neuro rehab packages through submitting her work for assessment by the British Association of Brain Injury Case Managers (BABICM) and was awarded Advanced Practitioner status.

Rosie's specialism for working with clients who aim to return to work, involves collaborative working with the client, employer and clinical team. Prior to moving into Case Management in 2002, Rosie spent many years working as a DWP Occupational Psychologist, before moving into the charitable sector as Research & Development Executive within the Rehab Group (Dublin based covering the UK).

Rosie manages her associate case management commitments whilst also working as a committee member with SYABIF (South Yorkshire Acquired Brain Injury Forum). SYABIF organises quarterly learning and networking events for professionals and survivors. In addition, she attends regular CPD activities, including BABICM, UKABIF and CMSUK annual conferences and several other academic and practitioner events. A full list of CPD attendance is available on Rosie's detailed CV which details her publications from academic roles she had previously held.
